

Kathy,

I'm really glad to be your friend and have really had a great time with you and hope we have more fun times in the future. We have had our good times and our bad but all in all it's been great.
I'm sure looking forward to next year in basketball, in life, and most of all as friends, Because you're the greatest friend ever. I know I don't ever say much but thanks for all the help you've given me, for the understanding of my silly emotions toward things and most of all thanks for just being near where I can talk to you when I need you.
This sounds as though were parting or something but it's a beautiful friendship and I'll remember and cherish it always, hope you will to.

Love your friend
Mory Beck

In years to come, as I look back, how will I remember? Will I remember the year as it was or as I had wished it to be? Will I remember only the happy time or the disappointments we also shared?

When your life starts its falling,
And you see you're going to die.
Why don't you start your calling,
To the spirit in the sky.

Some say He is dying,
Others say He's dead,
To me He's only crying
For the things in which He dreads.

As people we scoff and
scorn him,
Or we use his name in vain.
And still he still loves
them,
The wicked and the lame.

Is this one a superman, or is he a clod,
He is somebody special, because he is God.

Here I sit all broken
hearted,
Trying to write a poem
but can't get started.
Finally, though, I picked up my pen,
But the words I thought of would be a sin.
Although I always try my best to make an "A", I just can't think of a thing to say.
Alas, the words won't come to me,
So teacher dear, I'll settle for a "B".

AT LEAST NOT TO ME.
IN MAY I SHALL GRADUATE,
AT LAST I'LL BE FREE.
NO MORE TO "HIS" OFFICE,
NO LATE HOURS, TOO,
FOR AT LAST I'M A SENIOR -
THANK GOODNESS IT'S TRUE!

BELOW: Although intelligence isn't exactly our bag we do have a few people in our class with brains (not many though). The ones chosen most likely to succeed were Randy Barton and Sherry Stanford.

TOP LEFT: As well as being the best-looking class in school we are also the most talented in athletics, as proved by Kim Brown and Jimmy Williams, the most athletic of the junior class.

BOTTOM LEFT: Judging by the number of times Randy Coyle has got kicked out of Mrs. Keith's English class and the silly arguments Susie Griggs has with Coach Kopp it seems they were good selections for class clowns.

Another year has come and gone. A year of memories of the good times and the bad. One of my most cherished memories was the experience of working on the yearbook staff. It has been an experience that I wish everyone could share. It has been a feeling of pride when each page was sent in just knowing that each time you are one step closer to producing a book that will bring back fond memories of the past.

The yearbook staff would like to express its gratitude to the many businesses and families who bought ads in the 1974 Pirate and to you the subscriber. We would also like to apologize for errors made in publishing this book, especially in reference to the oversight of Pat Coyle's football picture.

So as we end this yearbook, we hope you enjoy reading it as much as we have enjoyed putting it together. It has been a rewarding year and may this book always serve its purpose to keep the years of 1973-74 alive.

Rhonda Morgan

Dedication to the Senior Class of 1974

We've only just begun to live,
White lace and promises,
A kiss for luck and we're on our way.

Before the rising sun we fly,
So many roads to choose,
We start out walking and learn to run.

Sharing horizons that are new to us,
Watching the signs along the way,
Talking it over just the two of us,
Working together day to day.

And when the evening comes we smile,
So much of life ahead, We'll find a place where there's room to grow,
And yes, We've Just Begun . . .

Paul Williams

Dear Kathy,
To the warmest smile I know.
One more year and we can both be in the same boat. Don't change for anyone Kathy and remember to keep friends cause a friend is a present you give to yourself.

Love
Kathy
Sullivan
